

The 11 Child Safe Standards

Central Grampians LLEN commits to protecting and safeguarding children and young people by adhering to the 11 Child Safe Standards.

Standard 1

Organisations establish a culturally safe environment in which the diverse and unique identities and experiences of Aboriginal children and young people are respected and valued.

Standard 7

Processes for complaints and concerns are child-focused.

Standard 2

Child safety and wellbeing is embedded in organisational leadership, governance and culture.

Standard 8

Staff and volunteers are equipped with the knowledge, skills and awareness to keep children and young people safe through ongoing education and training.

Standard 3

Children and young people are empowered about their rights, participate in decisions affecting them and are taken seriously.

Standard 9

Physical and online environments promote safety and wellbeing while minimising the opportunity for children and young people to be harmed.

Standard 4

Families and communities are informed and involved in promoting child safety and wellbeing.

Standard 10

Implementation of the Child Safe Standards is regularly reviewed and improved.

Standard 5

Equity is upheld and diverse needs respected in policy and practice.

Standard 11

Policies and procedures document how the organisation is safe for children and young people.

Standard 6

People working with children and young people are suitable and supported to reflect child safety and wellbeing values in practice.
